

Curriculum Overview
Year Group	Term	Unit of Work	Assessment Content	Type of Report
7	1	Theme 1: Weather and Climate Students will be exploring the characteristics of the UK weather and climate alongside examining the causes and effects of climate change.	For each of the four themes there will be a 25 mark assessment half way through and 25 mark assessment at the end Term 3: Mid-Year Exam Term 5: Interim Assessment Term 6: End of Year Exam	Tutor Report
	2	Theme 4: Changing Landscapes Students will Examine the physical processes shape our planet. Students will study the causes of hazards and the characteristics of coasts and rivers.
	3			Mid-Year Exam Data Report and Approach to Learning
	4	Theme 3: Global Society Students will study the key principles of population and the factors that control it. Students will explore what causes birth rate and death rate to increase and will explore the fundamental causes of migration at different scales.
	5	Theme 2: Ecosystems of the World Students will explore what ecosystems are and investigate the characteristics, value, threats and management of temperate deciduous woodland in the UK.		Interim Assessment Data and Full Report and Approach to Learning
	6			End of Year Exam Data Report and Approach to Learning

8	1	Theme 1: Weather and Climate Students will discover how atmospheric circulation shapes our weather and climate. Students will explore the causes and effects of extreme weather around the world.	For each of the four themes there will be a 25 mark assessment half way through and 25 mark assessment at the end
	2	Theme 4: Changing Landscapes Students will develop an understanding of the complex challenges our changing landscapes bring. Students will understand how our landscapes are dynamic and how they impact humans both socially and environmentally.		Term2: Interim Assessment	Interim Assessment Data Report and Approach to Learning
	3			Term 3: Mid-Year Exam	Mid-Year Exam Data Report and Approach to Learning
	4	Theme 3: Global Society Students will study why the population is drawn to megacities and the problems this can create. Students will start to explore the principles of globalisation and how this affects our society and environment.			Full Report
	5
	6	Theme 2: Ecosystems of the World Students will explore the major biomes of the world, focusing on the characteristics, value, threats and management of tropical rainforests and the Arctic tundra		Term 6: End of Year Exam	End of Year Exam Data Report and Approach to Learning

9	1	Theme 1: Weather and Climate Students will discover how the Earth’s climate has experienced a variety of climate cycles and how these cycles are naturally and anthropogenically caused. Students will explore the detailed effects of climate change, as well as evaluating what can be done to prevent them.	For each of the four themes there will be a 25 mark assessment half way through and 25 mark assessment at the end
	2	Theme 4: Changing Landscapes Students will explore how our changing landscapes can be managed. Students will explore how glaciers, tectonics and flooding events can be forecast and managed.		Term 2: Interim Assessment	Interim Assessment Data Report and Approach to Learning
	3			Term 3: Mid-Year Exam	Full Report
	4	Theme 3: Global Society Students will study how the population can be managed, exploring different migration and birth control policies. Students will explore how different international organisations can support our changing society.
	5
	6	Theme 2: Ecosystems of the World Students will explore the characteristics, value, threats and management of hot desert and oceans biomes		Term 6: End of Year Exam	End of Year Exam Data Report and Approach to Learning